LEXINGTON'S BEST SEASON

RACING COMES TO CLOSE FOR THIS YEAR IN THE BLUE GRASS REGION.

Kentucky Association's Meeting Attended with Satisfactory Results in Every Way Despite Unfavorable Climatic Conditions.

Lexington, Ky., September 20.—If the racing at Louisville and Latonia during the forthcoming seven weeks is as well patronized as was the sport during the nine days of the Kentucky Association's fall meeting, which closed this afternoon, the owners of Douglas Park, Churchill Downs and the Middle track will be wreathed in smiles. This was the Kentucky Association's best fall meeting from every standpoint and it was the organization's best year financially. Though rain fell at some time on eight of the nine days, the attendance was uniformly good throughout. This afternoon the rain poured down in solid sheets during the running of the second race and before the close of the day the dripping skies had changed the going from good to muddy, yet the crowd was large, the interest intense and the racing highly enjoyable.

The crowd was most excited over the handicap race at one mile and seventy yards, which was fourth on the card and from which Conqu Puss was withdrawn when the track became muddy, leaving Sleeth, Coy Lad and Ymir to go to the post. Sleeth ruled an odds-on favorite and was unquestionably the best horse. But a bad start, the only one during the entire meeting over which complaint could reasonably be raised against starter Harry Morrissey, was the primary cause of his defeat. Coy Lad had the inside position and he was constantly wheeling and turning and backing and lunging even with an assistant starter at his head. When Morrissey finally caught the three of them straight and released the barrier, Coy Lad bore to the outside, plunged into Sleeth and knocked him off his stride. In going down the stretch, Sleeth got to Coy Lad but he could not pass him. They hung together for a half mile and came to the finish amidst the cheers of the spectators heads apart. Sleeth raced on the outside for the entire journey. Jockey Henry went into the stand and claimed a foul against McCabe, who, he said, had struck Sleeth across the nose with his whip a couple of times as they came down the stretch. McCabe said that he did not know that he had touched Sleeth, but that if he had it had been unintentional. Starter Morrissey regretted the bumping at the start probably more than any other man on the grounds, unless it was Sleeth's owner, for it robbed him of a perfect score, so to speak. Had Coy Lad been on the outside, it probably would not have occurred. Starter Morrissey left here tonight for Gloucester, N. J., and will remain there all winter.

There was not a miscue of any kind in the parimutuels during this meeting and ring manager Gene Elrod and betting supervisor W. H. Laudemann received numerous congratulations upon the excellence of their work.

William H. Shelley, who performed the arduous functions of racing secretary, handicapper and associate judge, did his work in his usual efficient manner. Secretary G. D. Wilson made a good presiding judge and Tony Wallace a capable clerk of the scales and entry clerk.

The talent began auspiciously when they selected Ethelred in the opener. She won after a hard drive with Beulah S. John E. Madden's colors were carried to victory for the first time in a long while on the local track when Francis brought up in advance of the ordinary band that ran in the second race. Busy's class was considered good enough to make him beat the mediocre lot that opposed him in the third race. From 1907 to 1910 he conducted successful meetings at the Empire City course in New York, in Juarez, Mex., just across the Rio Grande river from El Paso, Tex., in a border town that is distant 700 miles in one way and twenty-four hours in another direction from a city of any size. He has built up racing to such a degree of popularity that a million-dollar hotel was built last season to accommodate the racegoers and tourists, who in the winter time betake themselves in that direction, while his management of historic Churchill Downs has been the cause of favorable mention on occasions too numerous to mention here.

Frederick Dallam, the new secretary-treasurer, is well known locally and affiliated in a like capacity under the former regime.

The racing officials who will be in charge at Laurel during the coming meeting are known throughout the country as among the best in their respective positions, proof conclusive that the meeting will be conducted along high-class lines in every particular.

The stewards of the meeting will be W. S. Vosburgh, M. J. Winn and E. C. Smith; judges, Joseph A. Murphy and P. A. Brady; handicapper, W. S. Vosburgh; starter, James Milton; paddock judges, Harry White and W. W. Lyles; patrol judges, C. C. Hall and W. Schantz; time, W. Faulk.

It is the intention of the new management to issue invitations to those prominent in business and well known socially to become members, with the idea of building up an organization that will add prestige to and perpetuate the sport of thoroughbred racing.

Owners who will ship to Laurel from Canada include J. W. Hedrick, N. B. Davis, N. Macfarlane, W. P. Fine, J. H. McCarren, P. M. Civioli, W. F. Presgrave, W. G. King-Dodds, W. H. Frey, Harry Hites, F. Johnson, E. McBride, J. P. Byrne, N. K. Reed, William C. Daly, E. P. Robie, C. Phillips, the Striker, C. T. Halsey, M. J. Donohue and J. Forrester.

WINS EASILY WITH 128 POUNDS UP.

Frederick Johnson's Good Colt, Cock o' the Walk, Continues His Victorious Career in East.

Baltimore, Md., September 20.—A big crowd saw the running of six good races at Havre de Grace today, of which the star number was the Chesterbrook Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth. Cock o' the Walk, Frederick Johnson's good three-year-old, which had won his previous four starts, ruled favorite, even though he had top weight of 128 pounds. Cock o' the Walk continued his good record by winning the race easily. Flying Fairy cut out the pace until well into the stretch, where Cock o' the Walk, at the head of the field, won with a rush, to score by a length and a half, with Flying Fairy second and Nightstick third. The last named was bothered considerably by the winner in the racing through the stretch, and his rider, Ambrose, lodged a complaint of foul, which was not allowed by the stewards.

J. L. Holland added another horse to his string today when he purchased the three-year-old Brar Path from J. W. Messervy at private sale. Mr. Holland has made quite a few purchases of late with a view to having a strong string to campaign at Charleston, S. C., next winter.

Gotelus, from the stable of J. B. Gray, was a real "good thing" that went through in the first race, but it cost twice the amount of the purse for his owner to retain him. Gotelus was entered to the third race for $1,500, but he was sold up to $1,500 by William Garth. Then Frank Taylor took a hand and sent the price up to $1,800. The stable protected him with the usual $5 advance.

Working Lad was also bid up and he passed into the possession of H. C. Hallenbeck after winning the third race for $1,500. Mollie S. was bid up $300, but was retained by her owner.

Stentor split his hoof while being galloped this morning and will be on the shelf for some time. He will be gelded in the meantime.

DORVAL MEETING CLOSURES AUSPICIOUSLY.

Seven Thousand Persons in Attendance for Closing Day of Racing at Montreal.

Montreal, Que., September 20.—Montrealers bade adieu to the thoroughbreds when the meeting at Dorval Park was brought to a close today. A card of seven well-filled races was offered to the public with no outstanding feature. The finishes were close and the racing keen throughout. Over seven thousand people passed through the gates, the attendance being the largest of the week.

It was a bad day for the public choices, only two of the seven scoring. Mama Johnson and Good Day were the two.

In the sixth race, Kinder Lou surprised the talent by winning. She was overlooked in the betting. Shipments to Toronto and Baltimore started tonight with the Maryland courses getting the bulk of the racers.

The management of the new track are warmly complimented by racing men on the successful completion of the inaugural meeting. Several improvements have been decided upon and work will be commenced immediately, so that they may be completed before the snow flies.

THE TETRARCH'S INVINCIBLE WAYS.

On the first day of the Doncaster meeting, September 9, the unbeaten two-year-old sensation of this year won the rich Champagne Stakes in such fashion that "Angus" said in London Sporting Life of the day following:

"'Won with ridiculous ease by three lengths; a bad third.' Such was the description of the 'race' between The Tetrarch and Stornoway at Doncaster yesterday. So the 'rocking horse' has treated what was considered by many people as his most dangerous opponent in precisely the same manner as he has everything else which has turned out against him. I expected he would beat Wootton's charge comfortably, but I hardly thought he would do so 'with ridiculous ease.'"

"What sort of animal is he? It has been generally conceded that this season's youngsters are better than last. This is not saying much, certainly; but with regard to The Tetrarch, he is, in racing parlance, 'streets' ahead of everything. In the early part of the season I was told that he had been tried with Bachelor's Hope at a very few pounds difference, but it seemed altogether too tall an order to believe. Maybe after all there is some foundation for the statement, for I doubt even now whether we have seen anything approaching his best. It has to be recollected that he has not in any way been pushed, and does not look like being this season. Everyone expected that Stornoway would make him gallop, but even he seems incapable of it."

"His performance vastly pleased the Yorkshiremen present. It was the first chance they had of seeing the gray and good people of horses as they are, they were vastly impressed with his style of galloping. There remain now only Hapsburg and Aldford with pretensions to even run against him, and it is impossible for them to meet this season, as they are not engaged together in the book of 'Races to Come.' The next appearance of both of them will be eagerly awaited."

SAM JACKSON WELL THOUGHT OF.

Horse That Will Carry George J. Long's Colors Formidable Kentucky Endurance Stakes Candidate.

Louisville, Ky., September 20.—Trainer J. O. Keene, than whom there are few better judges of a good horse, thinks that Sam Jackson has a royal chance of winning the third renewal of the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance Stakes, four miles, this fall. This event, one of the richest decided on the American turf this season, will be run on the opening day of the New Louisville Jockey Club's meeting at Churchill Downs October 8.

While at Saratoga with J. N. Camden's string of horses, which he trains, Keene saw considerable of the good McGinnis five-year-old and formed a high opinion of him, especially after he won the Saratoga Cup, he then made overtures to secure the son of Garry Hermann for the four-mile race this fall, offering to train the horse and bear all the expenses of preparing him for the big race for fifty per cent of the winnings. This offer Jack McGinnis declined, and then trainer Keene went so far as to increase his offer to seventy per cent, of the winnings. This was also turned down and Keene then asked for a price on the horse. McGinnis placed it at $15,000, and so Keene shipped the McGinnis stable to Kentucky without Sam Jackson in his car. McGinnis had no nomination for the Endurance Stakes and has since leased the horse to George J. Long, the local turfman, who holds a subscription for the event. Mr. Long had hoped to get his great four-year-old Free a furlong ready for this race, but having decided not to let him run this fall over such a long distance, even should he stand training, secured Sam Jackson to carry his colors in the $15,000 stake.

Sam Jackson, as noted above, is a son of that remarkable successful sire, Governor Gray, and is sent to the races that good racer, Governor Gray, a Latonia Derby winner and a colt of great ability as well as of phenomenal speed. Another good horse of his get is Alfred Noble, Garry Hermann is by Escher and out of a mare by Longfellow. Sam Jackson's dam is the noted mare Havello II., by the Epsom Derby winner, Sir Hugo, so there is hardly a better bred horse than the McGinnis crack in training. His dam also produced to Collar during his racing career won a total of $75,921 on the turf.

Sam Jackson came to his present high development as a sensational race horse quite slowly. He did not start at all as a two-year-old and only won three of his four starts. In his first start as a three-year-old he starts in a warm favorite in Canada, but ran a disappointing race, it may be noted. However, that was the only time he failed to show good form. This season he has raced brilliantly at Saratoga and Bega and Park. He has run a mile in 1:39.4, a mile and three-sixteenths in 2:03.5 and a mile and three quarters in 3:08.3, in heavy going. This latter performance was in the Saratoga Cup, which he won by five lengths with 124 pounds up. He is believed to be a warm favorite in Canada, and he has had considerable success with great horses in recent years. Besides Frank Gill, he once had in his stable the famous McKeekin.

Trainer Keene says that he never saw a horse that ran more like an ideal four-miler than Sam Jackson and he believes that if properly fitted for the long distance race at Churchill Downs this autumn, the ultimate winner in that event will meet a keen contender in this son of Garry Hermann, even if the latter should fail to win the $15,000 stakes. He says that Sam Jackson has all the speed a horse should possess, and that over a long distance and he apparently can do his best running at the finish of a long race. It is odd that such horses as Governor Gray, Alfred Noble and Sam Jackson are shored by a stallion that was once so discredited by breeders that he held a price for a trifle over $300. Garry Hermann is highly prized by the present owner, J. P. Widener, the Philadelphia turfman and breeder, who bid $12,000 for him when the Brown estate decided to retain him. He then sold for more money than Rossmore, which he had later he was knocked down for a song.

The fact that Sam Jackson will surely start in the big race this fall at Churchill Downs adds materially to the interest in this event. Many other stars are among the entries for the big race, which promises to have the biggest field which has yet faced the barrier in the short history of this, the most important of fall racing events.

Among the three-year-olds named by the subscribers for this race are Donerail, Gowell and Burskin, all Derby winners this season, August Belmont's Rock View and Frederick Johnson's Cock o' the Walk, the foremost eastern racers of their age. A. L. Astor's Ten Point and J. N. Camden's Helios, notable older horses engaged include Prince Eugene, Al Gold, Absconder, Bob R., Colonel Holloway, Pandorina, Kingly, Randolph, Phyllis, Antoinette, Swannanoa, Flying Fairy and Floral Day.

Manager M. J. Winn believes that the Kentucky Endurance Stakes this fall will be even a faster run race than it was last season, when Mrs. L. A. Livingston's Sotemia set the record for four miles at 7:10.4. Mr. Winn, who is now in the east, had assurances from many turfmen of that section that they will be in attendance to see this great race run, and it is confidently expected that the crowd which will visit Churchill Downs on Wednesday, October 8, will be the second largest of that plant, which have been greatly expanded and enlarged since the Endurance Stakes of 1912 was run.

The cup which will go to the winner of the race as a donation from the Kentucky State Racing Commission, is apparently well worth the $1,000 it has been estimated that it will be worth in the carat gold and is a trophy that will be much prized by the fortunate turfman whose horse wins this valuable stake.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

William Lakeland is recovering from an extended spell of sickness.

The stables of R. V. Haymaker and S. C. Weant are among those that will make the long trip from Vancouver, B. C., to Laurel, Md.

Hon. J. S. Hendrie has a dozen likely yearlings at Woodbine in charge of trainer John Graver, half of the number being Valley Farm bred. One of them is a brother to White Caps, who marked similarly to that useful horse. Another is a brother to Glimmer, and these can run now, having shown an eighth in 12 seconds recently. Of the American-bred lot a noticeable one is the sister to Miss Gayle, by The Commencer—Alpaca, for which an offer of $2,500 has been refused. She also has run a furlong in 12 seconds. Altogether they appear to be the best lot shown by the Valley Farm in a long time.

Postboy, the four-year-old jumper owned by Alex Smith Cochran of Yorkers, is to return to Ireland to train for the Liverpool Grand National in March next. The bay son of Avildity and Low Gill will leave New York on Saturday of next week and will be re-shipped from London to Ireland. Postboy was bred in Ireland and was purchased by Mr. Cochran after he won the Maiden Hunters' Steeplechase at the Ward Union Hunt Club meeting held at Fairview, County Dublin. There he carried 140 pounds over a two and one-half miles course and won by twelve lengths. As soon as Postboy was properly acclimated in this country and trained, he easily won two steeplechases during the recent Saratoga meeting.

TORONTO RACING BRILLIANT

TEN THOUSAND PERSONS GIVE ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB'S MEETING GRAND SENDOFF.

Great Britain Makes Big Concessions of Weight to Good Opposition and Carries Hendrie Colors to Victory in Toronto Autumn Cup.

Toronto, Ont., September 20.—An ideal autumn afternoon, coupled with a high-class program, attracted a large gathering to the opening of the Ontario Jockey Club's fall meeting at Woodbine this afternoon. Fully 10,000 persons were present and, with stirring contests in order, the sport was thoroughly enjoyed. Three of the seven races were stakes, including the Toronto Cup, $2,500 added, the Woodbine Autumn Steeplechase, $1,000 added, and the Dominion Handicap, $1,500 added.

The Tercentenary Handicap, a dash of six furlongs, to which $700 was added, was provided as an additional attraction, and it brought out a field of the best sprinters racing in Canada. In this race Rockville, from the Seagram stable, after a long absence from the races, beat among others Pan Zareta and Pate Glass. Rockville had been prepared at Woodbine and was but little fancied by the rank and file of race goers. The son of Rockton showed a keen turn of speed all the way. He ran close up to the leaders to the stretch turn, then began to improve his position and in the final furlong caught and passed Pan Zareta and drew away into an easy lead.

The running of the allowance race for two-year-olds was attended by a great surprise when Hodge beat the crack Darius Billy, Southern Maid, a head. Southern Maid showed a high flight of speed and led by a comfortable margin until well into the final furlong before she began to quit. At the end Hodge, under one of Guy Burns' most vigorous finishes, under the firing leader down and got up to win by a head. Burns rode one of the best finishes seen on the Canadian circuit all season and fairly lifted his mount home in advance of the favorite. It was a desperate drive in which the winner showed sterling courage.

The Dominion Handicap provided a stirring struggle in which Ondramon beat Lindesta half a length. Hearts of Oak was coupled with Ondramon and was third, beaten a head for second place. He carried 132 pounds and made all of the pace, finishing only in the last fifty yards.

This was the fifth running of the Dominion Handicap. Its history follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1909	Shimonese	112	Taplin	$1,440	1:43
1910	Rough Saucer	114	C. Archib'd	1,380	1:44
1911	Denham	126	McCabe	1,360	1:42
1912	Heresy	122	Teahan	1,225	1:42
1913	Ondramon	111	R. Watts	1,180	1:42

The Toronto Cup gave George M. Hendrie's three-year-old, Great Britain, another opportunity of showing how good a colt he is just now. In the early stages Obert, pursuing tactics he has adhered to when riding the horse in his recent races, permitted the big striding son of The Commencer to get settled before making a move. The result was that they outran him for the first half mile, but from there to the end Great Britain gradually improved his position and at the end he came through the homestretch with a splendid burst of speed that landed him first at the finish and going away from the others. The victory of the horse was loudly cheered and the winner and his rider, Guy Burns, were greeted with more enthusiasm than on any other occasion during the season.

The tabled history of the Toronto Autumn Cup is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1902	Janice	106	J. Daly	$ 970	1:58
1903	Rough Rider	114	F. Walsh	820	2:10

1907	John Dillon	152	Masnada	$1,025	5:09

The committee of the Canadian Racing Association will hold a meeting on Monday, when all of the racing for the past season will be reviewed. The policy for next season will also be mapped out and any unfinished business from the previous meeting wound up.

Jockey Wilson, who had the mount on The African, suffered a broken collar bone as a result of his fall. Smith, who had the mount on Foxcraft, was only shaken up in a last fifty yards.

Amberite pulled up lame in her race and probably will be retired for the season.

George M. Hendrie has lost the promising two-year-old, Romanian, by Planudes—Carmen Sylva, who was left behind at Ottawa, suffering from sickness to which he succumbed this week.

Recent work-outs of horses in training here were as follows:

Colston—Mile in 1:47.

A CANADIAN MUTUEL RUMOR.

There was a general discussion of an important racing question at the Dorval track yesterday. During last week's meeting at Blue Bonnets there were a tremendous lot of complaints to the effect that the "betting ring" was entirely too small to accommodate all who were anxious to take a chance, and everyone has been wondering why the Montreal Jockey Club did not enlarge the accommodation between the spring and autumn meetings.

The supposed reason for this was given by a prominent racing man yesterday. "It is on the cards," he said, "that by next season the Canadian Racing Associations and all its affiliated tracks will entirely bar the bookmaker, and will stick to parimutuel betting exclusively."

Mr. Northey, the secretary of the Montreal Jockey Club, smilingly declined to discuss this question the same as he refused to discuss the rumor a year or so ago to the effect that Blue Bonnets was going to install the pari-mutuels.—Montreal Star.

PIPING ROCK'S RICH PROGRAM.

Amateur Association in East Will Distribute Some $30,000 for Two Days' Racing.

New York, September 20.—The program for the fall meeting of the Piping Rock Association, which has just been issued by Frank J. Bryan, the racing secretary, gives every assurance of sport fully up to the standard established last fall when the inaugural meeting was marked by racing of the highest grade.

It was with a desire that there should not be any lapse of merit that those in charge decided to race this fall two days in place of three. Realizing the great scarcity of high-class horses and the natural desire of owners fortunate enough to possess a top-notch to avoid chances of breaking them down by too frequent racing, it was decided to race on two Saturdays, October 11 and 18, and to arrange a schedule of events that would bring to the post on both days the best of material.

The total amount of added money for the two days is $21,250, with the plate for the same races amounting in value to $2,600. To this must be added the entrance and starting fees, which should amount to a sum that is almost sure to bring the total disbursements for the two days to $30,000. The events to be decided are as follows:

Harbor Hill Cup—A steeplechase for three-year-olds.

Piping Rock Subscription Races—For two-year-olds.

Booger Red Championship Plate—For Galloways.

Oak Ridge Cup—A steeplechase for three-year-olds.

Northwood Plate—A steeplechase for three-year-olds.

Braes Cup—For hacks, hunters and army horses.

Heyday Plate—For two-year-olds.

Piping Rock Oaks—For three-year-old fillies.

Piping Rock Cup—A steeplechase for hunters.

Brook Champion Steeplechase Trophy.

Desoris Plate—For hacks, hunters and army officers.

All of these events, with the exception of the Oaks and Subscription races, are renewals of fixtures provided last fall, and the glamour already established is sure to be continued.

For the Harbor Hill Cup, entries for which closed August 15, twenty-six nominations have been received, and this means practically all of the new comers in the steeplechase ranks. The indications are that at least a dozen will respond to post call for the race. In the two open steeplechases, the Oak Ridge and Northwood Trophies, will be found the best of the older division, for in addition to the rich financial return for the victor, comes the glory of a victory at Piping Rock, something lovers of the sport have already learned to seek and treasure.

There will be two races for the Subscription two-year-olds, one at six furlongs, for which the stakes will be $5,000 and the other at one mile, in which $7,500 is to be the prize. In both events great fields are sure to compete, for of the fifty yearlings that were distributed at the recent sales, last fall, about forty are still in training and being pointed for either or both of these races. Many of these two-year-olds have been competing in open races during the summer in this country and in Canada with success.

Others, after showing well in the races arranged for them at the spring session, have been kept in reserve for this meeting. The result is certain to be two contests that will bring the result originally intended, to make for turf history a page that will carry the details of a new sporting race.

Of the fifty original subscribers forty-three were newcomers in the ranks of owners. Many of these, pleased with their auspicious introduction, have purchased other horses, some gathering pretentious strings, eager to see their colors carried with credit at frequent intervals.

A famous turf writer, when the details of the Piping Rock Subscription were first published, predicted it would mean the first stride toward the restoration of racing. He pointed out the sportsman-like character of the conditions, the unflinching standing of those subscribing, the object lesson it would prove to trainers, the boom it was to breeders, and the respect it demanded from all lovers of the thoroughbred. His predictions have certainly been realized, for the racing world is now unstinted in its praise for the benefits brought. It is one of many developments that have brought Piping Rock racing to a position pre-eminent.

TIMELY GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., September 20.—Heavy rain made the going shaly at the local tracks yesterday, so there was little doing in the way of work for speed. The most recent work-outs of Douglas Park Inaugural Handicap candidates have been as follows:

Blackhorn—Mile in 1:44.
 Flora Anna—Mile in 1:44.
 Helen Barber—Five-eighths in 1:04.
 Jenny Geddes—Mile in 1:44.
 Leochares—Quarter mile in 25.
 Prince Hermis—Mile in 1:45.
 Sprimite—Three-quarters in 1:19.

Nothing has occurred to lessen the prospects for a big field in this stake. Now that the weights have been announced by Secretary E. W. Maginn, the indications are that it will be one of the liveliest betting races.

Secretary E. W. Maginn arrived from St. Louis Thursday to remain at Douglas Park until the eleven-day racing season ends here on October 4, when the $5,000 Louisville Cup is to be decided, the weights for which two-mile race he will assign on September 30.

J. B. Campbell, entry clerk and clerk of the course at Lexington Park, arrived today surely expecting where he has been engaged in registering the horses which will be shipped here. He reports that practically all the horses now quartered at Lexington will come here by Monday.

All the machines are in place at Douglas Park in the betting ring and the chairs have been installed in the grandstand and boxes. The administration building is ready for the reception of betting ring master, Eugene Elrod and his crew, and, in fact, everything is in readiness for the opening of next Tuesday with the exception of the hoisting of the flags over the buildings.

The track and its surroundings could not present a more beautiful appearance. Manager Hachmeister has personally looked after the details and the grounds now present an aspect as slightly as money gardening can make them. With good weather, the success of the fall racing season at Douglas Park is assured.

J. T. Weaver has written a friend here that he will be in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, barring training accidents, and he believes that her races at Douglas Park in the $3,500 Inaugural Handicap and the $5,000 Louisville Cup, two miles, will fit her so that she will be unbeatable by any horse in training over the four-mile course.

Secretary Maginn will close the entries for the Douglas Park opening day card at his office at that track at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, September 22. At the same hour declarations will be due for the $3,500 Inaugural Handicap. The Douglas Park races will begin at 2:15 p. m. each day.
